- We may disclose aggregated information about you, and information that does not identify any individual, without restriction.

Please note that our sharing of information may be subject to additional rights available under applicable federal or state law.

What are Cookies and how does Amerant use Cookies?

Cookies are pieces of information that are stored directly on the devices that you are using. They allow us to collect information such as the type of browser you are using, the amount of time you spend using our Digital Services and the preferences you have set up for your accounts. We use this information for different purposes, including personalization of your experience, enhance security, facilitate navigation, display content more efficiently, recognize the device that you are using to access our services and understand how our services are used. We do not use cookies that capture personal information.

You can choose through your browser settings to have your devices refuse to accept any cookies, and the majority of devices and browsers offer additional privacy settings for cookies. Device and browsers could be different from each other, so look at your device settings or your browser help menu to learn how to modify your cookies. If you turn cookies off, you will not have access to some features that make your user experience within our Digital Services more efficient. Please note that you will need to manage your cookie settings for each device and browser that you use.

Social Media Platforms

Amerant may interact with registered users of various social media platforms, including Instagram® and Twitter®. Please note that these social media platforms may have additional terms from this policy about the privacy of your information. Please review the privacy policy for the specific online sites you are using before posting any content to such social media platforms (e.g., pictures, information, comments or opinions).

Children's Online Privacy Protection Act

Our Digital Services are not intended for children under 13 year of age. We do not knowingly collect personal information from children under 13. If you are under 13, please do not provide any information when using our Digital Services.

Linking to Third-Party Websites

The Digital Services may include links to websites that are not owned or operated by Amerant ("Third-Party Websites"). When you visit a Third-Party Website through these links, you will be subject to that website's privacy and security rules and practices. You should review the privacy policy and security practices of the linked Third-Party Websites before providing any information on that websites.

Data Security

Amerant Bank, N.A. takes the security of your personal information seriously. Please visit the Security Center posted in our main webpage, www.amerantbank.com, for additional information about how we protect your information, and important recommendations that we highly recommend to follow when you use the Digital Services.

Retention Period

We will retain your information for the period necessary to fulfill the purposes outlined in this Privacy Policy, unless a longer retention period is required by law.

Cross-Border Transfer

The Digital Services are controlled and operated by us from the United States, and are not intended to subject us to the laws or jurisdiction of any country or territory other than that of the United States. We may store and process your personal information in any country where we have facilities or in which we engage service providers, and, by using the Digital Services, you consent to the transfer of information to countries outside of your country of residence, including the United States, which may have different data protection rules than those of your country.

Changes to this Online Privacy Policy

Amerant reserves the right to change this Privacy Policy at any time. Prior to changes to the Privacy Policy, we will let you know by appropriate means such as by posting the revised policy on our main website. Your continued use of the Digital Services after any change in this Privacy Policy will constitute your acceptance of such change.
